Like a Bean Bag, But Way Better

Bean bags are great and all, but there's only so comfortable you can get with the noisy, hard and messy beans. Our Snug Pods are filled with ultra comfy shredded foam instead of Styrofoam beans. We love shredded foam because it gives just the right balance between support and that luxuriously sinking feeling. The foam conforms to the shape of your body for perfect custom comfort!

Did Someone Say Snooze Mode?

It's no secret that we're just a little sleep obsessed here at Zeek! So we just couldn't resist designing our Snug Pods to include a convertible bed! Yep – you heard us correctly! Simply unzip the outer cover of your snug pod and shake out the inner pod until it's flat and you have an emergency spare bed or perfect position for movie night!
